

around town

The Sixty-plus Club will hold a business meeting Jan. 18 preceded by a coffee hour at 12:30. The meeting will be presided over by the Club President, Helen Barbary. It will be followed by an afternoon of games.

Sally and Fred Toppan spent the holidays at their ski lodge in Jackson, N.H., with children Jennifer, Howard and Darcy.

Patty Knowles of Holly Lane is recuperating at home after foot surgery at the South Shore Hospital.

A daughter was born to the Thomas Murrys of Tad Lane on Dec. 27 at South Shore Hospital.

A first child, a son, Michael Cole, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald of Jerusalem Road. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Fitzgerald of Hingham and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cole Jr., also of Hingham.

One hundred and thirty-five third graders and their teachers from the Joseph Osgood School visited the Boston State House. They were conducted on a tour by Mrs. Eric Pearson of Cohasset, a member of the Doric Dames. They had their picture taken with the Governor and Rep. Mary Jeanette Murray and attended a movie "How To File Legislation." They were presented with a brochure explaining the State House, a children's guide to the State House and a booklet written by Mass. students about their towns.

Sally and Fred Wood have returned from their New Hampshire farmhouse where they spent a skiing vacation with their children Mark, a student at Thayer Academy and Freddie, studying at the Mass. Maritime Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morton of New York and Cohasset

PAST BECOMES PRESENT — Right out of Currier & Ives, Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Andrews of Atlantic Avenue take a horse and buggy ride along Border St. with their trusty steed name of Hobbit. (Greg Derr photo)

have announced the engagement of their daughter Sarah Elizabeth to Robert Bainbridge Jones, son of Mrs. Arthur Anderson of Duxbury and Durham Jones of Weston. Miss Morton is a graduate of Dana Hall and Derby Academy. She attended Skidmore College and will graduate this month from Colby College in Maine. Mr. Jones attended Duxbury schools and is a graduate of New England College in N.H. He is a sales representative for Boston Gear Works in Chicago. A Sept. 15 wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Casey and the Francis Johnsons attended the Inaugural Ball at the Park Plaza Hotel in Boston held in honor of the new governor, Edward King.

The Osgood Communication Council met Wednesday at the Unitarian Parish House. Discussed was the proposed school budget changes and a talk was given by Mary Benbow on her work as a developmental therapist with children in grades K-3.

A winter brunch and open house will be held Sunday, Jan. 14 from 11 to 2 at the South Shore Art Center. Douglas Orr will demonstrate sumi brush painting and there will be a film "Buddhism — Man and Nature" to complement the demonstration. The film "Three East Coast Artists: De Kooning, Hoffman, Tworlov" will also be shown. This is the time for class enrollment, and includes a student exhibit. The Art Center teachers will be there to answer questions about the courses.

January signals the midpoint in the school year and an adjustment for kindergartners as they exchange morning and afternoon class assignments. On Monday, Jan. 29, morning children will be assigned to the afternoon session and the afternooners will attend the morning session. Morning hours are from 8:35 to 11:15 and afternoon hours are from 11:55 to 2:35.

The Friends of the Library announces the Acting Place Truckin' Company's Storytime Theater will be at the Unitarian Parish House on Sat. Jan. 13 at 1:30 p.m. to present the Baba Yaga stories. This program will appeal primarily to children in grades 1 through 6. Audience participation in acting out the stories is encouraged.

There will be a winter film series at the South Shore Art Center on Ripley Rd. The films will be shown at the Center at 4:00 p.m. on Sundays and are part of the Kenneth Clark "Civilization" program. Each film features two artists from the Romantic period. The first will be on Jan. 21 and is titled "The Romantic Rebellion." It is an introduction to the series by Mr. Clark. The film festival is planned by Iris Osterman and the projector and projectionist will be supplied by Cohasset High School. Tea will be served and an informal discussion will follow. The films are free to members of the Art Center.

Miss Frances Downs, a resident of the Ripley Road Nursing Home celebrated her 95th birthday Christmas Day. Congratulations, Frances! The Mariner wishes many more years to a very perky lady.

Sammis McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McLean of Elm Street, owners of the Linen Chest, has illustrated two children's books published by Doubleday, I Been There and Super Vroomer. He has two books due out in the spring and fall of 1979. Both books were written by Carol Hall and conceived by Northern Calloway, well-known to children for his role as David on "Sesame Street." Sam McLean grew up in Cohasset and graduated from the Art Institute of Boston. He has lived in Paris, France and now makes his home in New York City, where he has coproduced several films for "Sesame Street." His grandmother was Helen Scripture who was town selectwoman of Cohasset for many years.

VISITING FIREMEN? Not exactly. But they are visiting hockey players from New York who competed in recent tournament here and in between action enjoyed the charms of Cohasset Harbor. (Greg Derr photo)

LOOK AROUND...YOU MAY NEED...

1. Roofing 2. Alum. & Vinyl Siding 3. Thermal-Barrier Windows
4. Aluminum Awnings & Door Hoods 5. Storm Windows 6. Gutters
7. Aluminum Storm Doors

We Do 'Em All!

Call for free estimates at no obligation.

Let us Spend A Day In Your Attic
Good Insulation Pays For Itself. Good insulation is the best way to save heat in winter and keep it out in summer and the better the application, the more you'll save in heating/cooling costs. To protect yourself against rapidly rising fuel costs, be sure you have a minimum of R19 insulation in your attic.

You Can Save As Much As 30% A Year
on your heating/cooling costs!

Edward F. Goff Company

61 Gannet Road, No. Scituate, Ma. 02080, 545-8311